What belongs in your career profile?

Complete all sections to give a full picture of your experience, skills and career interests.

Interests
Job profiles, skills, career and travel or relocation preferences.

Job History
Include your historical job history, including positions at Oshkosh.

Education
Add both completed education and currently enrolled programs.

Certifications
List any current certifications obtained.

Skills
Use the drop down menu to add or search for relevant skills.

Work Experience
Choose the correct work field and years of experience you've completed.

Award and Activity
Add accomplishments, awards, volunteer efforts, etc. to share in this area.

Stay connected to new opportunities

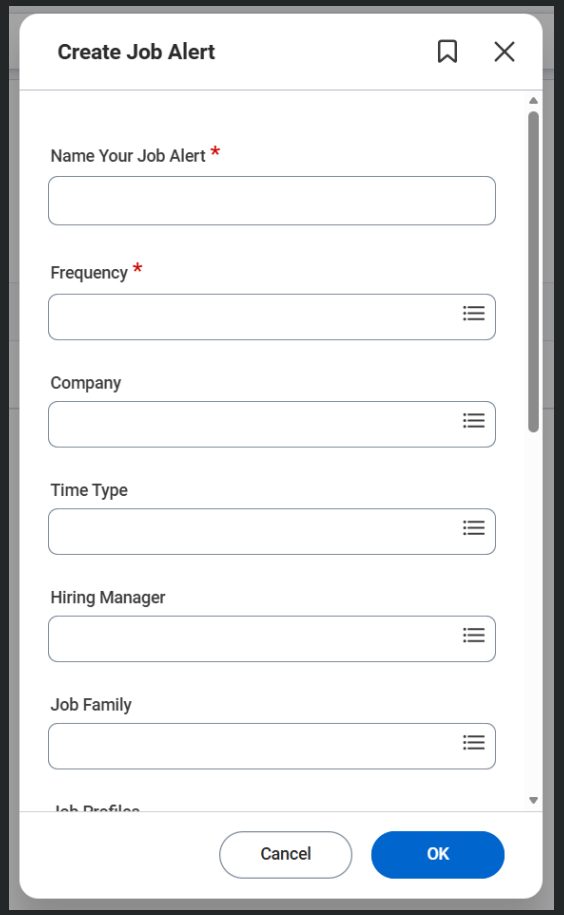

Set up job alerts in Workday to be notified when roles that match your interests are posted on the internal career site.

01 Navigate to Internal Job Postings

02 Open My Job Alert

03 Create new job alert

Quick tip: You can also search “Create Job Alert” in Workday to set up an alert or manage your alerts at any time.

Your resume tells your story

01 Keep it relevant and concise

02 Tailor it to the opportunity

03 Highlight skills and accomplishments

04 Use action words and quantify your impact

05 Proofread and submit as a PDF

Show your impact, not just responsibilities

INSTEAD OF THIS…	TRY THIS…
Listing job responsibilities	Highlighting accomplishments and results
Assuming your title tells the story	Explaining the scope and impact of your work
Focusing only on direct experience	Connecting transferable skills to the role
Assuming they already know your work	Making your contributions and accomplishments clear

Before you submit your application

Take a few key steps to set yourself up for success.

- Talk with your leader
  Have a conversation about your career interests and the opportunity.
- Ask questions
  Reach out to the hiring manager or Talent Acquisition Partner if you have questions about the role or process.
- Express your interest
  Use the application to tell your story and explain why you're a strong fit.
- Apply promptly
  Submit your application as soon as you're ready so it can be considered during the full posting period.

Your internal recruitment journey

TA REVIEW

TA reviews your qualifications against the role's requirements.

MANAGER REVIEW

The hiring manager determines whether to move forward.

HR ELGIBILITY

TA confirms manager notification and eligibility to move.

MANAGER SCREEN

You may be invited to an initial conversation.

TEAM INTERVIEW

TA coordinates interviews with the broader team.

EVALUATION

The hiring team reviews feedback and evaluates candidates.

NEXT STEPS

TA communicates the decision and next steps.

What to expect along the way

As your application moves forward, here is what you can expect.

INTERVIEW SCHEDULING

Keep your calendar current. TA Coordination will send interview details to your internal calendar.

COMMUNICATION & UPDATES

Your TA Partner will communicate whether you are advancing and what happens next.

IF YOU ARE NOT SELECTED

TA will confirm the decision. Connect with HR or your leader about feedback and development.

Good to Know: You don't need to use PTO for internal interviews, and if travel is required, TA will provide instructions for arranging it through Fox Travel.

Preparing for your interview

SLIDO QUESITON

Have you ever interviewed for another role within Oshkosh?

A Yes, and I was offered the role.

B Yes, but I wasn't selected.

C No, but I'm interested in exploring.

D No, I haven't considered an internal move.

Preparing for your internal interview

Approach your internal interview with the same intention and preparation as an external candidate would.

RESEARCH THE ROLE

Understand the responsibilities, team and skills the hiring manager is looking for. Use the job description as a guide to identify the most important qualifications.

CONNECT YOUR EXPERIENCE

Identify relevant accomplishments, transferable skills and examples of your impact. Think about how your experience aligns with what the role is asking for.

KNOW YOUR WHY

Be ready to explain why this opportunity interests you and how it connects to your career goals. Consider what you want to learn, the impact you hope to make and why you want to continue growing at Oshkosh.

Make the most of the conversation

How you show up and communication can make a huge difference.

BE CLEAR AND SPECIFIC

Share examples that demonstrate your skills, thought process and the impact you've made.

SPEAK TO YOUR EXPERIENCE

Don't assume the team knows your work. Explain your contributions and accomplishments.

BE PROFESSIONAL AND PREPARED

Approach the interview with the same level of professionalism as an external candidate.

ENGAGE IN MEANINGFUL CONVERSATION

Ask thoughtful questions, listen carefully and just be yourself.

What to expect along the way

Use the STAR method to structure clear, specific responses that highlight your actions and the impact you made.

Situation

Describe the situation or event you were in.

Task

Explain your exact task, role or responsibility in the situation.

Action

Share the specific actions you took to handle your task.

Result

Discuss the positive results of your actions and the lessons you learned.

OSHKOSH™

After the interview

What happens after the interview?

Once interviews are complete, the hiring team reviews interview feedback, evaluates all candidates and makes a decision.

IF YOU RECEIVE AN OFFER

Your next chapter begins

Take time to consider the offer and communicate your decision to TA.

If you accept, your current and future leaders will help coordinate your transition.

If the opportunity isn't the right fit, communicate your decision respectfully and professionally.

IF YOU'RE NOT SELECTED

Your growth continues

Use the experience to better understand your strengths and areas for development.

Build relevant experience through gig work, stretch assignments or other development opportunities.

Connect with your leader or HRBP to discuss your career interests and prepare for future opportunities.
